grants power to:

II. ("the agent"), full name and form of corporation of legal entity, if applicable:

Address: _____

for the registration and management of following domain name: _____ being warranted by the principal that he/it is the legitimate holder thereof

1. The principal shall continue to be the exclusive and legitimate holder of the above mentioned domain name, notwithstanding the granting of this power to the agent. The agent may only act by virtue of and within the limits of the present power.
2. This power authorizes the agent to register the above mentioned domain name. The agent will provide the Restena's registrar with all information which is required for the registration procedure. The principal undertakes to provide the agent within the shortest possible time with all information which is required for the registration of the domain name. It guarantees the accuracy of this information and it undertakes to notify to the agent any modification to this information within the shortest possible time.
3. The agent has the power to manage the domain name and to inform the Restena's registrar within the shortest possible time about any modification to the data of the domain name which is contained in the WHOIS database.
4. The present power does not authorize the agent to apply for the cancellation of the domain name. The cancellation requires a special power of attorney which mentions expressly the domain name to be deleted.
